

School of Library and Information Science

WORKSHOP / COURSE OVERLAP LIST

WORKSHOP	COURSE
The ABC's of Emergent Literacy	LIS 60625 Library Materials and Services for Very Young Children
Access to Government Documents Online	LIS 60611 Government Information Sources and Services
Cataloging of Non-print Material	LIS 60603 Cataloging and Classification II
Database Design and Applications I	LIS 60645 Database Systems
Database Design and Applications II	LIS 60645 Database Systems
Digital Imaging I: Image Processing	LIS 60651 Digital Image Processing
Ethical Principles and Cases for Information Professionals	LIS 60666 Ethical Concerns of Library & Information Professionals
Finding and Using Internet Tools and Resources	LIS 60003 Information Technology for Library and Information Professionals
Genealogy and Local History Research Methods for Librarians	LIS 61095 Reference and Research Methods in Local History and Genealogy
Legal Resources for Non-Law Librarians	LIS 61095 Legal Information and Legal Resources
Library Programming for Families with Very Young Children	LIS 60625 Library Materials and Services for Very Young Children
Marketing and Merchandising Library Services To Children and Young Adults	LIS 61095 Marketing the Library
Marketing to the Masses	LIS 61095 Marketing the Library
Metadata for Digital Collections	LIS 60637 Metadata Architectures and Implementations
Online Database Searching	LIS 60643 Online Information Systems
Preservation of Library Materials	LIS 60654 Preservation Management
Readers' Advisory Service to Adults	LIS 61095 Readers' Advisory Services

WORKSHOP / WORKSHOP OVERLAP LIST:

Please note that the workshops in the categories below have similar content. Students may take both workshops in a category, but can only count one of the workshops toward the M.L.I.S. degree.

Early Childhood Workshops

- The ABC's of Emergent Literacy: The Building Blocks for Infusing Early Literacy Strategies into Preschool Storytimes
- Library Programming for Families with Very Young Children

Young Adult Services Workshops

- Young Adult Best Bets: A Young Adult Literature Update
- Young Adult Literature Past and Present